It's no wonder Two by Two for AIDS and Art, benefiting amfAR and the Dallas Museum of Art, brings out the chic crowds, including the Rose clan (Catherine Marcus, Lela, and co-chair Deedie), co-chair Emily Summers, Caroline Minnis, Lisa and Gerard Arpey, and John and Jennifer Eagle. It's a week full of fab parties at the Richard Meier-designed Rachofsky House, packed to the brim with cool contemporary art up for grabs. Thursday night's First Look: An Evening for the Senses featured a sneak peek at Victory Park's new restaurants and fashion ventures. As guests sipped champagne, they were entertained by spunky drag queen—and high-kicking wonder—Miso Pretty. The grand finale, Saturday night's gala, allowed bidders to finally get their hands on their favorite pieces after they grooved to Barry Manilow's tunes and mingled with Stanley Tucci and Kenneth Cole.
