Barry Manilow

Deedie Rose

LOOKS LIKE HE MADE IT

Two by Two for AIDS and Art' co-chairs Deedie Rose and Emily Summers caught Manilow magic when they brought Barry to Dallas to perform his smooth hits for the dinner auction at the Rachofsky House. Ladies swooned, and the kindly crooner auctioned two sets of front-row seats for his Vegas show. Add in back-stage visits and Barry's personally signed undies, and bam!—both packages drew $40,000 each that night. Elegant guests including Emmy Award winner Stanley Tucci and amFAR chairman Kenneth Cole and wife Maria Cuomo Cole were whisked down the drive in rickshaws, to the beating of Kabuchi drummers on the front lawn. George Catering served 32 pounds of caviar and 40 magnums of Dom Perignon. The over-the-top fête raised $2.2 million for both amFAR and the DMA. —JANIE DONOSKY CONDON
